

Tax consultancy

A specialist service

Why work with us

Unfortunately HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) adage "Tax doesn't have to be taxing" is far from reality, and this is why seeking tax advisory services have become very popular. We have spent over 15 years developing our tax consultancy offering to become one of the largest dedicated teams in the UK.

The team cover a wide spectrum of taxes with specialist partners and staff dedicated to providing bespoke advice to long standing clients and to others on a one off advisory basis. In fact other accountancy firms outsource their tax advisory needs to Lovewell Blake because of the depth of knowledge within the team.

Our services

Our whole ethos has been to develop a team who are free from daily tax compliance so they can spend time with clients to understand their needs. By having specialists, we centralise knowledge which allows the team to be highly educated in their chosen area. The firm is able to offer advice around:

- Income tax to include self employed and partnership businesses
- Corporation tax to include accelerated relief claims, share schemes and remuneration
- Capital gains tax to include structuring a sale for Entrepreneurs relief
- Inheritance tax and will planning (in lifetime and death)
- Trust and estate planning
- Employment taxes (PAYE and NIC)
- International transactions (both business and personal)
- Stamp taxes
- VAT

The firm is a member of HLB International which is a world-wide network of independent accountants and tax advisers. Membership ensures we can provide support with your international assignments to mitigate dual taxation. It also allows us to review jurisdictions to understand how you and your business will be impacted. Integrity is taken very seriously by the partners of the firm, so you can be assured our tax advice is shaped to your needs and compliant with tax regulations. We have all read how some taxpayers have gone to extreme lengths to mitigate their tax exposure, often with the use of bespoke vehicles. Rest assured this is not the type of planning we endorse, or conduct, so our advice is based around understanding the tax system.
